Scout Spirit:

To me, true Scout Spirit is:
I have demonstrated my Scout Spirit in my everyday life by:
I will continue to demonstrate my Scout Spirit in my everyday life by:
A Scout always tells the truth. He is honest and keeps his promises. People can depend on him.
I was Trustworthy when I:
A Scout is true to the groups to which he belongs; his Family, his Friends, his Church, his Troop and Patrol, his Community and his Nation.
I was Loyal when I:
A Scout cares about other people. He willingly volunteers to help others, without expecting payment or reward.
I was Helpful when I:
A Scout is a friend to all. He is a brother to all Scouts. He offers his friendship to people of all races, nations and religions and respects them, even if their beliefs and customs are different than his. He is the first to speak to a newcomer.
I was Friendly when I:
A Scout is polite to everyone, regardless of their age or position. He knows that using good manners makes it easier for people to get along. A Scout can be polite even when other people are wrong or angry.
I was Courteous when I:
A Scout knows there is strength in being gentle. He treats others as he wants to be treated. Without good reason, he does not harm or kill any living thing.
I was Kind when I:
A Scout follows the rules of his Family, his Church, his Troop and his Patrol. He obeys the Laws of his Community and his Nation. If he thinks the rules or laws are unfair, he tries to have them changed in an orderly manner, rather than disobeying them.
I was Obedient when I:
A Scout looks for the bright side of life. He cheerfully does tasks that come his way. He tries to make others happy when he is tired or even when it's raining outside. Yes, whistling counts.
I was Cheerful when I:
A Scout works to pay his own way and to help others. He saves for the future. He protects and conserves natural resources. He carefully uses his time wisely.
I was Thrifty when I:
A Scout can face danger, even though he is afraid. He has the courage to stand against peer pressure for what he thinks is right, even when others laugh at or threaten him.
I was Brave when I:
A Scout keeps his mind and body fit. He chooses the company of those who live by high standards. He helps keep his Home and Community clean.
I was Clean when I:
A Scout finds wonders all around him; in the tiny secrets of creation, in the great mystery of the universe and in the kindness of others. He sometimes feels a "chill" or sense of "awe" when he witnesses the beauty, the vastness or the raw force of nature.
I was Reverent when I:
